

Vaishnav.S

IBM18CS121

Online Shopping system

These are the online software where customer used to buy product of their need. Super or admin has account to add product to the database. The member of website to order item the system the make it available to order item.

This System will be used by 3 people Admin customer website.

* Admin: These are the people who adds product to the database so that user can purchase with their detail and. Because they can add product of any category with their category. They are help use order to shipped in 3 days.

* Customer: These are user who used to buy product. They are user with different user. Only valid user can place order. There are many mode of payment where people can pay. They can track and make cancellation.

* Website: These are user who just user website to view product, compare, etc.

Vaishnav